- 3 SECTION 1. FINDINGS.
- 4 Congress finds the following:

- (2) The report of the Architect of the Capitol entitled "History of Slave Laborers in the Construction of the United States Capitol" documents the role of slave labor in the construction of the Capitol.
  - (3) Enslaved African-Americans performed the backbreaking work of quarrying the stone which comprised many of the floors, walls, and columns of the Capitol.
  - (4) Enslaved African-Americans also participated in other facets of construction of the Capitol, including carpentry, masonry, carting, rafting, roofing, plastering, glazing, painting, and sawing.
  - (5) The marble columns in the Old Senate Chamber and the sandstone walls of the East Front corridor remain as the lasting legacies of the enslaved African-Americans who worked the quarries.
  - (6) Slave-quarried stones from the remnants of the original Capitol walls can be found in Rock Creek Park in the District of Columbia.
  - (7) The Statue of Freedom now atop the Capitol dome could not have been cast without the pivotal intervention of Philip Reid, an enslaved African-American foundry worker who deciphered the puzzle

- of how to separate the 5-piece plaster model for casting, when all others failed.
  - (8) The great hall of the Capitol Visitor Center was named Emancipation Hall to help acknowledge the work of the slave laborers who built the Capitol.
    - (9) No narrative on the construction of the Capitol that does not include the contribution of enslaved African-Americans can fully and accurately reflect its history.
  - (10) Recognition of the contributions of enslaved African-Americans brings to all Americans an understanding of the continuing evolution of our representative democracy.
  - (11) A marker dedicated to the enslaved African-Americans who helped to build the Capitol will reflect the charge of the Capitol Visitor Center to teach visitors about Congress and its development.
